

Press Release

His Excellency Leela Mani Paudyal, non-resident Ambassador of Nepal to Mongolia presented his Letter of Credence to His Excellency Tsakhiagiin Elbegdorj, President of Mongolia amid a special ceremony organized at the Office of the President, Ulaanbaatar, Mongolia on April 27, 2017.

During the ceremony, Ambassador Paudyal conveyed cordial greetings and best wishes from the Right Hon'ble Bidhya Devi Bhandari, President of Nepal as well as from the people of Nepal for the continued peace and prosperity of the people of Mongolia. After the ceremony, Ambassador had a brief meeting with the President. During the meeting, various bilateral and multilateral issues of mutual interest were shared.

Also this afternoon, Ambassador Paudyal paid courtesy call on His Excellency Tsend Munkh-Orgil, Minister for Foreign Affairs of Mongolia. The Foreign Minister congratulated Ambassador Paudyal for presenting his Letter of Credence to the President of Mongolia this morning. Ambassador expressed his appreciation for the excellent arrangements made since his arrival in Ulaanbaatar. Ambassador Paudyal conveyed that the Government of Nepal is in the process for the accession to the International Think Tank for Landlocked Developing Countries. He also expressed his views that there are lots of opportunities to promote bilateral relations between Nepal and Mongolia in fields of tourism, culture, trade, investment and people-to-people contacts. The Foreign Minister requested to support for the construction of Mongolian monastery in Lumbini. He further shared about the idea of developing Buddhist circuit for Buddhist pilgrimage.

Ambassador Paudyal also visited office of the International Think Tank for Landlocked Developing Countries, where he had a meeting with His Excellency Erdenetsogt ODBAYAR, Ambassador-at-Large. During the meeting both sides underlined the importance of cooperation and collaboration between and among the Landlocked Developing countries for meeting challenges posed by their development status, geographical location and climate change.

Ambassador Paudyal will present two papers on investment opportunities and tourism to the selected business communities this evening. Ambassador is returning back to Beijing on Friday, 28 April 2017.
